UPDATE FROM ORVIETO | Professor Vibhavari Jani

Experience Orvieto by enjoying Professor Jani's beautiful narrative of the AP design students' visit to Florence - the city of Brunelleschi's Duomo. Professor Jani writes "... as we marched towards the hotel, I started looking for the Duomo, which can be seen from a distance from any street in Florence. Before we knew it, we were in front of the famous baptistry of San Giovanni and there, right in front of us was the glorious Duomo, and the magnificent belfry ... however many times I have been to Florence and seen these buildings, it still takes my breath away! This truly amazes me every time that looking at this building, I feel as if I had never seen anything like it ever before! I see the same expressions on our students' faces." READ THE ENTIRE NARRATIVE AND VIEW PHOTOS. Stay tuned for future updates.
