

MLA Advanced Studio study tours took students to South Korea with Assistant Professor Hyung Jin Kim and Southern California with Associate Professor Howard Hahn

Landscape Architecture and Regional & Community Planning Monday Memo 10.31.16

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please welcome the LARCP Advisory Council to campus this Thursday and Friday, November 3 and 4. All students and faculty are invited to hear mini-Pecha Kucha presentations by advisory council members and the graduating class on Thursday, November 3, noon to 1:00 pm at APDWest. Please plan to be there.

The New Landscape Declaration has been released by the Landscape Architecture Foundation, read it here. The declaration was crafted from presentations and conversation at the June 2016 LAF Summit on Landscape Architecture and the Future. Department Head and Professor Stephanie Rolley was a contributor to the declaration.

OUR CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Associate Professor Jon Hunt published Field: The spaces between in the Thinking Eye Selected Shorts in the Journal of Landscape Architecture Volume 11 2016 - Issue 3. The text is available here and you can see the accompanying images in the print version.

Dr. Christopher K. Sass, PhD '11, MLA '07, and Dr. Tim D. Keane published Riparian Corridor Change in a Northeastern Kansas Watershed in Landscape Journal, January 2016, 35:57-78.

The K-State Student Planning Association held their annual GHOSThattan event with 51 3rd grade students from Woodrow Wilson Elementary School on Friday, Oct 28. Reagan Tokos, MRCP student, took this great photo:

Assistant Professor Hyung Jin Kim led his studio on a study tour of Seoul and Songdo, South Korea from September 27 to October 2. Students visited several ASLA award-winning projects (Cheonggyecheon, Seonyudo Park and West Seoul Lake Park) as well as internationally-renowned design projects (DDP, Seoul Sky Garden and Songdo Smart City). They also toured historic gardens, palaces and villages in downtown Seoul with students from Kyung Hee University, and visited the landscape architecture school at Seoul National University and Bitzro & Partners, a design firm where a KSU alumnus works.

Associate Professor Howard Hahn led his Conservation Communities studio on a study tour to Southern California to review housing developments, visit the SWA (Laguna Beach) and Nuvis (Costa Mesa) landscape architectural offices, and tour the Huntington and Getty museums and gardens.

Students from the Urban Design and Development Seminar led by Associate Professor Blake Belanger will be presenting their proposals to stakeholders and the public at Clay Center's Third Thursday event on November 7. For more information, click here.
