Associate Professor Blake Belanger attended The Creativity Workshop in New York City February 23-27. The workshop focused on developing creative thinking and expression through individual exercises, group activities, and homework assignments completed through firsthand experiences in the city. The session contributed to Belanger's ongoing scholarship on creativity, contributed to his teaching the course Unlocking Creativity, and expanded his personal creative potential. The trip was supported, in part, by an Academic Excellence Award from the university.
