Notes from Rome

Buenasera!

We had a wonderful visit to Roma! We took very early (6:40am) bus to get to the train station and took 7:30 train to go to Rome. It was a chilly morning, you could feel the excitement of the students who were ready to explore Rome!

On route to Roma we saw beautiful sun rise over the hills, it was breath taking sight! The frosted grass shined brightly as the sun rays kissed the ground. Even the dew was frozen and glistened over the dried flowers like pearls! The train goes through a very beautiful part of the region and before we knew it, we were entering the termini station.

We marched on with gusto to take the crowded metro of Rome to start our tour. We arrived at Colosseo. and it was full of interesting people...and as we came out of the station, we were greeted by a bright sunny morning!

We could not have asked for a better day! It was a clear day, azure sky loomed over Colosseo, there were not many tourist as yet. But there were many carabinieri and polizia stationed everywhere.

Thus we started our tour with Marco's (our guide) introduction of Roman architecture, politics, and historical narration. We explored ancient ruins of Rome on foot until 1:00pm and saw many historic buildings of Ancient Rome. Regardless to say, our students were wonder struck, and very hungry! We had a nice lunch near Pantheon and then gave them time to visit Rome after visiting Castle Sant Angelo.

Call for Volunteers in Research Study

Dear Fellow APDesign Students:

I am working on my master's report in the Department of Landscape Architecture and Regional & Community Planning and could really use your help. We are looking for volunteers of all years to participate in a research study. The focus of the study is on cognitive maps (this is the mental map you create to understand spatial connections) and their relationship with narratives, experience, and time. It would be great to get at least a few students

Resource of the Week - Competitions Annual

The KSU/UW team for the ULI (Urban Land Institute) Competition submitted their comprehensive design and development program Monday, January 23rd. KSU's multidisciplinary team members are Alex Booth, Jonathan Knight, Kaitlin Bernal and Melissa Wilson. Their 5th team member is John Bezouska from the University of Wisconsin.

Because of them "setting up studio" in Weigel for 15 days to devise and prepare their competition submission, it is appropriate that Competitions Annual (NA 2335 .C665 2011, 2014 and 2015) is Weigel's Resource of the Week.

This annual publication is a comprehensive volume dedicated to some of the more interesting competitions in a year. It represents a broad spectrum of design competitions in architecture, landscape architecture and planning; with the winner and runners up in one place; and with extensive commentary and jury comments included. It is also a good resource for professional level diagrams and rendering.

As the Resource of the Week the three annuals are on display on Weigel's circulation counter. Look through them when you're in the library.

Reminders about Weigel

The copy machine operates only with coins. Sorry, it doesn't work with Cat Cash. You can get change for a dollar bill however on the front of the copy machine.

Weigel has two scanners for your convenience - the BookEye for books and the flatbed for drawings. Please do not scan books on the flatbed. You'll break the book binding and the hinges on the scanner lid.
