

John William Keller
Professor of Planning
Department of Landscape Arch. & Regional and Comm. Planning

Phone 785/532-2441

Education

St. Benedict's College, Atchison, KS: B.A. Political Science, 1967

Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS: M.A. Political Science/Constitutional Law 1968

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New Brunswick, NJ M.S.: Regional and Community Planning

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New Brunswick, NJ Ph.D.: Regional and Community Planning, 1973

Professional Affiliations and Certifications

American Institute of Planning, Associate Member 1972

American Society of Planning Officials 1973

American Community Development Society, Founding Member 1969

American Planning Association, Founding Member, 1978

American Institute of Certified Planners, 1978

Fellow of the American Institute of Certified Planners, 2001

Teaching Areas

Planning Law

Land Use Planning

Comprehensive Planning Practice

Small Community and Rural Area Planning

Areas of Specialization and Research

Planning Practice

Rural Economic Development Theory and Practice

Planning Law and Land Use

Land Use Regulations

Teaching Experience

Rutgers the State University of New Jersey: 1970 – 1971 Instructor

Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas 1973 to present – Professor, Assistant Professor and Professor.

International Conferences – Keynotes and Symposia - Post 1995

Keller, John, Agricultural Land Preservation in the United States, A Keynote Presentation at the Australian Rural Planning Conference, Bendigo, AU 1998.

Keller, John, Rural Change and Structure – Economic Development in Country Towns, Conference of the Economic Development Society of New South Wales, Lismore AU 2002.

Selected Conference Presentations

Keller, John, The Vanishing Communities on the Great Plains, Prairie Gateway Conference, Emporia, KS 2001.

Keller, John, Smart Decline: The Case of Vanishing Rural Schools and Towns, A key presentation prepared for the United Rural School Administrators, The Johnson Foundation at Wingspread, Racine, Wisconsin 2003.

Keller, John, The Elderly Widows – From Dolan to Willowborough: A presentation at the 4 state Conference of the American Planning Association, 2002.

Keller, John, Tom Daniels and Ian Sinclair; The Countryside, U.s and Australian Comparative Practice, National Conference of the American Planning Association, 2004

Keller, John The School at the Heart and Soul of the Small Community; Keynote speech given at the annual conference of the United Rural Schools Administrators

Keller, John and Tim Bates, Dogs, Hogs and Bullfrogs – The Planning Law Exemption for Agricultural Land Use Regulation, Conference of the American Planning Association, 2006

Daniels, Tom, Carol Thomas and Ian Sinclair - Planning at the Metro Fringe, American Planning Association, 2007

Keller, John , Bob Barber, Carol Rhea, and Joanne Garnett – 12 Steps of the Road to Enforcement Recovery, Conference of the American Planning Association, 2007

Keller, John, Signs of Our Times, Presented at the Kansas Conference of the American Planning Association, 2013

Books and Chapters

Lapping, Mark, Tom Daniels and John Keller, Rural Planning and Development in the United States, Guilford Press, 1989

Daniels, Tom, John Keller and Mark Lapping, - The Small Town Planning Handbook, APA Press, 1998

Daniel, Tom, John Keller and Mark Lapping, The Small Town Planning Handbook 2nd, APA Press 2003

Daniels, Tom, John Keller, Marking Lapping, Katherine Daniels and James Segedy – The Small Town Planning Handbook 3rd, APA Press, 2007