

Expectations and Responsibilities Head, Architecture

- Lead a diverse academic community committed to excellence in design pedagogy, scholarship, research and other creative endeavors.
- Foster a collaborative environment and incorporate the perspectives of faculty, staff, students, alumni and other constituents into a strategic vision for the department.
- Represent and advocate for the department within the college and university and externally to the professional community and citizenry of the State of Kansas and beyond.
- Experience in fiscal, strategic and personnel management