Thank you to all who attended and participated in Design Expo last Friday. It was well attended. As always it was a pleasure to see former students who are now leaders in their firms.

Our second year group is off to Dallas this week. Have a great time and don't forget your sketch books. Third year is off to New York after spring break. For the rest of you, please enjoy your spring break and come back ready to make great architecture.

Have a great week and safe spring break travels.
