THE COLLEGE of ARCHITECTURE, PLANNING & DESIGN // K-STATE

Spreading Holiday Cheer at APD-West!

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

Everyone at APDesign,

A long time ago I decided not to wish for semesters or academic years to end. Doing so makes your life click along at much too fast a rate! I am sure I am not the only one, but this semester I have often been tempted to go against this prohibition. Whether because of budget issues, construction delays, hiccups in transportation, moving or building services, or most recently Seaton 63 being more like an incubator in a Jurassic Park movie than a lecture hall, our patience and resolve has been tested. (Turns out the controls for space disappeared along with most of Seaton Court!)

Fortunately, I am able to counter this with the incredible can-do spirit shown by faculty, staff and students and by the incredible sense of community that has paralleled all the tribulations of the past 6 months. I am also buoyed by the fact that we are, at 6 months, one quarter of the way being in our new spaces! It is amazing to think that when we return in January we are down to our last three semesters of operations at APD West!

14-18 Finals Week

In addition to the normative activities of teaching, research, service, recruiting, fundraising and administration this fall, we have had some significant events and hurdles:

- o Relocation (either within Seaton or to APDWest) of all of our studios and classrooms.
 - o Relocation of the vast majority of our faculty and a good portion of our staff.
 - o Relocation of the IAPD Departmental Office and Arch Dept. Head.
 - o Relocation of Seaton server. Setting up a new server at APDWest.
 - o Moving all of shops and equipment.
 - o Setting up temporary shop activities at a local business.
 - o Filling 10 Storage units, two shipping containers and a significant amount of space in the K-State Library annex with 'items too useful or precious to discard.'
 - o Internet connectivity at APD West (finally-not anyone internal to our organization's fault!)
 - o Building a new Shop facility at APD West (Will be open for use soon!)
 - o Host a fun ground-breaking ceremony.
 - o Start demolition of Seaton Court and of Mechanics Hall/ Seaton East Interiors.
 - o Host countless coordination meetings between client, design team and contractor.
- And so on.

None of this is an excuse. No excuses are necessary or accepted. It is our task to uphold the excellence that has defined this place regardless of the difficulties and interruptions that are a part of a building project. Those of us involved in helping others realize a better future through design and construction must be willing to overcome the discomfort associated with necessary change in our working environment. I am proud to say that we on the whole are providing a superb model on this front.

Remember, great programs are defined by great finishes. That is what we expect around here. And following that, as you form your mindset for the coming semester, set your goals and standards above any that others could possibly set for you.

I look forward to adding your individual and collaborative accomplishments to the list above!

All the best for the Holidays! Be safe, thankful and jolly!
Tim

SURVEY

To all students in APDesign:

Now that our migration to the new facility is relatively complete, we need YOUR feedback (again)! This time, we want to better understand how you are managing the commute and to see how it might be improved. This project is part of a Jessica Weber's MRCP Report and continued research by faculty that will be summarized and presented to the Dean, University and Regional Transit Authority.

Go ahead and take the survey (chance to win $10 Union Gift Card):

<http://bit.ly/APDTrans>

Note: This survey was created by Jessica Weber under the guidance of Dr. Chamberlain (LARCP), Dr. Newmark (LARCP), and Dr. Sanderson (Sociology), and has been approved by Kansas State University's Institutional Review Board. Survey questions are focused on your transportation and studio behaviors and are completely anonymous. We will be giving out $10 gift certificates to 25 RANDOM students who take the survey.

Your participation will be helpful not only to the College and community, but will also support critical transportation research nationwide.
