

APDesign E-NEWS SPECIAL EDITION

09.30.16

Special Communication from Dean de Noble Members of the APDesign Community at Seaton Hall and APD West,

This Thursday morning, September 29th, K-State Facilities and Police personnel discovered numerous separate but related incidences of vandalism at both APD West and Seaton Hall. Numerous doors were tagged extensively with spray paint, requiring several hours of cleaning to remove the markings.

Please be advised that the K-State Police department is currently reviewing video footage from both Seaton and APDWest so as to identify the vandal(s) and are requesting any information that might assist them bringing this chapter to a close. If you saw something, say something by calling the K-State Police. Your information will be treated anonymously.

Please know that I will do what I can to insure that we are not subjected to this sort of thing again and that our custodial staff is not tasked with additional hardship in cleaning up after senseless acts of vandalism.

Thank you,

Tim
Professor & Dean

PS: On another, but much more positive note, the Design Intelligence rankings are out and our programs at APDesign are once again very prominently placed in the nation. Congratulations! Stay tuned for the full release in the next few days.

Food Truck Friday!
