NATHALIE ROZENCWAJG
APRIL 21, AT 4PM - UNION LITTLE THEATER

Nathalie Rozencwajg is director of RARE an office for research, architecture and experimentation based in Paris and London. After graduating from the Architectural Association School of Architecture in London in 2001, and working in international practices, she cofounded RARE in 2005. The office emphasises work at different scales integrating research and design. RARE was awarded the RIBA 2011 award and the RICS Project of the Year Award for Town Hotel Hotel in London and is currently working on large-scale projects exploring advanced fabrication methods. In parallel, the office pursues the design and manufacturing of furniture and object collections. The work of RARE has been featured in a number of publications worldwide.
