K-State architecture programs top ranked From The Manhattan Mercury

Kansas State University's College of Architecture, Planning & Design graduate programs in architecture, interior architecture and landscape architecture are among the best in the nation, according to annual rankings by DesignIntelligence, the only organization ranking accredited professional programs in architecture, landscape architecture and interior design/architecture.

This year, the graduate program in landscape architecture ranked fifth in the nation overall and second among programs at public institutions. The graduate program in interior architecture ranked sixth nationally and first among programs at public institutions. The graduate program in architecture ranked 18th in the nation and eighth among programs at public institutions.

Taken as a whole, APDesign finished as the most prominent college in the rankings given its housing programs across the entire spectrum of design.

Gina Ford to Present Lecture in Ekdahl Lecture Series

February 28, 2018 | 4:30PM, Regnier Forum

Ms. Ford is a principal and landscape architect in Sasaki's Urban Studio. The Urban Studio is an energized and interdisciplinary group of practitioners solely dedicated to the improvement of quality of life in cities through rigorous planning, exceptional design, and strong community partnerships.

Her work encompasses a wide range of scales and project types, from public parks and plazas to large-scale landscape planning and waterfront projects. She brings to each project a passion for the process of making vibrant landscape spaces—from the conceptual design to the details of implementation—with a particular focus on the life and use of urban, public environments.

Ms. Ford's experience is additionally informed by extensive research, writing, travel, teaching, and competitions. Her teaching includes guest critic and studio instructor roles at the Harvard Design School, MIT, and RISD. She holds degrees in architecture from Wellesley College and landscape architecture from the Harvard Graduate School of Design, and was the recipient of Wellesley's Shaw Fellowship, the Janet Darling Webel Prize, the Hyde Chair at the University of Nebraska, and the Charles Eliot Travelling Fellowship. Gina also serves on the board of directors for The Cultural Landscape Foundation, and on the editorial board of Architecture Boston.

Thurs., Feb. 15, 5:30 p.m., Regnier 2124

RETURNED EDUCATION ABROAD STUDENTS ONLY.

Joe Milostan of Education Abroad will co-lead this workshop with Andrew Kohls from the Career Center. In the workshop, you'll reflect on your study abroad experience and learn to incorporate these experiences into your resumes and cover letters, as well as how to talk about your international experiences in a professional way. Refreshments will be provided.

APDPro: Storytelling – It's Not Just for Kids!*

[PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION, SPECIAL TOPIC]

Mon., Feb. 19, 5:30 p.m., Regnier Forum
Presented by Adam Herbig, IAPD alum and owner of DigBig, LLC. As a designer, whether you want to admit it or not, you are also in sales. The greatest design won't go anywhere if it doesn't connect with its intended audience. Get to the heart of why by connecting your presentations and designs through storytelling. This event is a requirement for 1st year APDPro students.

APPLY TO BE A TILLMAN SCHOLAR

"We're excited to announce that the online application to join the 2018 Class of Tillman Scholars is now open. Eligible active duty service members, veterans, and spouses are invited to submit applications for the Tillman Scholars program until Thursday, March 1, 2018 at 11:59 p.m. PT. For details on eligibility and to begin your application, click here.

The Tillman Scholars program unites and empowers remarkable military veterans and spouses as the next generation of private and public sector leaders committed to service beyond self. The fellowship program supports Tillman Scholars with academic scholarships, a national network, and professional development opportunities, so they are empowered to make an impact in the fields of medicine, law, business, policy, technology, education, and the arts.

For the current scholarship cycle, applicants will be notified of results no later than May 2018. Scholarships in 2018 are expected to average $10,000 per academic year, and may cover tuition, fees, books, and living expenses. Tillman Scholars will also receive up to $1,000 in funding for a professional development opportunity of their choice.

We strongly encourage you to apply if you are eligible!"
