

Suggested Resume Text for Involvement in APDPro

The following are examples of how you could include APDPro on your resume. Modify as you wish to reflect your experiences.

Where to Include:

Depending on your layout/formatting for your resume, you could include in any of the following sections:

- Activities/Involvement
 - Experience
 - Professional Experience
-

Currently in the program:

College of Architecture, Planning & Design APDPro August 2013-present

- Manage time effectively to complete X professional development activities each semester.
 - Network with design professionals learning about industry trends, professional etiquette, and interoffice culture.
 - Interact with peers across disciplines to complete activities and workshops.
-

Completed the program for at least one academic year (past tense):

College of Architecture, Planning & Design APDPro 2014, 2015

- Managed time effectively to complete X professional development activities each semester.
 - Networked with design professionals learning about industry trends, professional etiquette, and interoffice culture.
 - Interacted with peers across disciplines to complete activities and workshops.
 - Completed a comprehensive evaluation of program to enhance future participant experiences.
-

More concise version (completed the program for at least one academic year):

APDPro | APDesign | Kansas State University 2014

Participated in X professional development opportunities each semester; networked with design professionals and peers across disciplines about industry trends & specialized designs.